

Social Media Black Out & Cyber General Cleanse OF A I BORG CONTAMINATION

Greetings and Salutations Commander,

This is a Letter Creation Admin Team Composed for UFOPR Ground Troops some of you it may ring true to your Core Being. Commander we are all Here on Mission the Greatest Mission we have ever Undertaken....

Greetings, Commander, happy that you've made contact with us. You have been in the simulator for a VERY long time. The Matrix broke you. You have been reading about certain truths that may not be true.

Has it ever occurred to you that burdening you with disclosures can be a manipulation tactic? We are not saying that bad things are not happening -- far from it -- but it is up to you how you handle them.

If you took time to surf our material, you would see that this is a training simulator. We cannot put it more plainly than that. You are a hologram, as we all are. That is the truth. Your true body is in stasis in a secure location.

What is your mission right now at hand? It is to graduate. How do you do that? First, awaken to the call. You did that. Secondly, clean your avatar of attachments of contamination's. How do you do that? Follow protocol. What is the protocol?

Check in daily so that the system can keep you online, and thus, receive upgrades. Once you receive upgrades, all of this negativity will evaporate. You lost your purpose. We're going to help you gain it back.

Mother's mojos are an important part of this awakening. Mojos help you with cutting cords, cleansing, protecting you, opening your third eye, healing physically and mentally, and provide intensified upgrades.

Yet, you must do your part. You must disengage from all your previous practices -- e.g., surfing the internet.

You must UNLEARN what you have learned. The system feeds off your anguish.

We have attached PDF instructions for cleanse.

We sincerely hope that you make the right choice.

Regards
